In any event, because of selationship, we advised Col Roger Pezzelle, USA (Ret) of selationship, we advised Col Roger Pezzelle, USA (Ret) of selationship, we advised in South Vietnam and remembers well. 2. Col Sadler, the last MAC/SOG commander, is in the process of retiring. Col Pezzelle said that he would telephone Col Sadler, either at his current post in Panama or at his settlement point in Texas. Further, should Col Sadler not find it possible to sponsor Col Pezzelle said that he would also inform other members of the Special Forces "old boy" net. The military services have been very good about arranging sponsorship of old Vietnamese comrades. 3. When we called Mr. Sam Arnold's office, the Catholic Conference Relief Center at Camp Pendleton on 13 June, they told us that had been sponsored and had already left the Center. 4. We remain alert to your desire to sponsor someone and will advise you when we locate an appropriate candidate. Theodore G. Shackley Theodore G. Shackley	£ . m: bam Arnord, Cathoric Conference Relugee Center at Camp Pendleton, called to say that he is trying to find a sponsor (i.e., you) for Directorate of the Special Forces and has met you.
was going to be sponsored by of Ft. Bragg but, because he is sponsoring several other refugees and is encountering complications, he won't be able to sponsornow.
I told Mr. Arnold I would pass his message on to you and someone would give him a call back.

Linda

The phone number for the Refugee Center is (714) 498-2385. If Mr. Arnold is not there, anyone else there will be able to take the message.
